UNPUBLISHED DECISION¹

On January 12, 2021, the parties filed a joint stipulation concerning the petition for compensation filed by Carl Konen on February 2, 2018. Petitioner alleged that the influenza (“flu”) vaccine he received on September 26, 2016, which is contained in the Vaccine Injury Table (the “Table”), 42 C.F.R. §100.3(a), caused him to suffer vaccine-induced chronic inflammatory demyelinating polyneuropathy (“CIDP”). Petitioner represents that there has been no prior award or settlement of a civil action for damages on his behalf as a result of his condition.

¹ The E-Government Act, 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services), requires that the Court post this decision on its website. Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 18(b), the parties have 14 days to file a motion proposing redaction of medical information or other information described in 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4). Any redactions ordered by the special master will appear in the document posted on the website.

Respondent denies that the vaccine either caused or significantly aggravated petitioner's alleged injury or any other injury, and denies that petitioner's current disabilities are the result of a vaccine-related injury.

Nevertheless, the parties agree to the joint stipulation, attached hereto. The undersigned finds said stipulation reasonable and adopts it as the decision of the Court in awarding damages, on the terms set forth therein.

Damages awarded in that stipulation include:

- 1. A lump sum payment of $304,168.16 in the form of a check payable to petitioner. This amount represents compensation for first year life care expenses, lost earnings, pain and suffering, and past unreimbursable expenses.
- 2. A lump sum payment of $1,296.97 in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Summa Health System. This amount represents compensation for past unreimbursable expenses. Petitioner agrees to endorse this check to Summa Health System.
- 3. A lump sum payment of $9,236.65 in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Accredo Health, Inc. This amount represents compensation for past unreimbursable expenses. Petitioner agrees to endorse this check to Accredo Health, Inc.

The above amounts represent compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).
